Please join us in praying that our country will continue to be led for the next four years by leaders who will enable our ministries to grow stronger! Of course, we know that our God is reigns over all powers, but it would be very good if we could continue to grow stronger for a few more years before the inevitable persecution of Christians is unleashed on us. The situation is very tense, we need the mercy of our God!

25	S Kra TK	Pray for wisdom with gaining my next residence permit extension, in 6 months. They make it hard to stay here in my city. (I applied for a year, and they hesitantly gave me 6 months. And this has happened twice now. I need to figure out new ways to be able to stay here because I don't think they'll extend me anymore unless I buy property or get the permit from another city.) 32	MacKenzie and Iain Morrison Scotland	We'd love prayer for God's sovereignty and will- as to where we will be next year- Iain and I have a heart and longing to stay here in Harris and to continue with the relationships that we already have begun investing in. We are waiting to hear from the school - if they want Iain to stay teaching French- we really hope and pray they will want him to stay - it looks like he probably will be able to stay but the council here decides these things and so we'd love prayer that the school would fight to keep him (basically because it's his first year teaching he is paid less and sometimes the council wants to keep swapping out first year teachers so they don't have to pay them more – so lame that it's about money, but the school really likes Iain as a teacher so we'll see!)
